Welcome to the August Newsletter.

Course News:

Please note that the Play Reading Course has now changed to 10am to 12 midday on Friday's.

Hopefully with the warmer weather approaching class sizes will increase in numbers. If you have any suggestions for classes that you may be interested in – either attending or being the leader of the class please contact the course co-ordinator Helen Burnham.

Armchair Travel – this course has been very well received and a lot of input from all in attendance. John & Helen continue to provide interesting topics and are looking at providing some guest speakers to help out “budding travellers”

If you are interested in attending any of the courses that are on offer you are more than welcome to attend – “the more the merrier”
